

MEDIA FACT SHEET

What is WofA: We of Action (WofA) is a progressive group founded by an Arlington, VA, teacher in the wake of the 2016 presidential election. The group now numbers more than 1000 members. WofA represents a broad spectrum of backgrounds and perspectives and coordinates activities to promote positive and productive dialogue. WofA is affiliated with local and national groups, such as Indivisible and WomensMarch.

WofA Mission: Empower advocacy, promote fair and free elections, improve voter participation, engage in productive dialogue and support the pursuit of justice and tolerance.

WofA's goals include:

- Strengthening the values of good citizenship and civic engagement
- Creating bridges for understanding across political and cultural divides
- Empowering informed and positive actions on key issues, including voting and elections, immigration, gun violence prevention, environment, education, health care, women's rights, LGBTQ+, youth awareness and constructive dialogue.
- Pursuing fair, competitive elections and better voter participation
- Electing representatives who support the principles of our democracy

WofA activities: WofA holds monthly informational meetings and other events to provide resources for the promotion of a just and impartial government, separation of powers and respect for civil rights and liberties.

For all media queries, coverage and interview requests please contact:

Micaela Pond, email: micaela.pond@gmail.com, or

Teresa Cordova, email: teresa.cordova@comcast.net, phone: (571) 308-6550.